Press Release

Melbourne, Australia – Tuesday 24th August, 2010 – Chartis, a leader in general insurance, has today announced the launch of their Corporate Travel product on Transact – their eBusiness platform.

Chartis is the first insurer in Australia to launch a Corporate Travel product on the Sunrise Exchange. This platform provides a full lifecycle, fully integrated end-to-end experience for brokers allowing them to easily write Chartis SME Corporate Travel policies online. The flexibility of Transact also allows brokers to add charter flights, conferences with higher aggregates, excesses and additional benefits automatically with minimal referrals to Chartis. In addition, administrative functions such as document printing and premium bookings are also fully automated.

“The knowledge, experience and capabilities of the team here at Chartis have allowed us to build a product aimed at asking brokers fewer questions, allowing them to conduct their business more efficiently”, said Phillip Brain, National Broker Sales Manager, Consumer Lines, Chartis Australia. “Our Corporate Travel on Transact product is a prime example of our continued commitment to delivering on innovative and market-leading insurance products and service platforms to our partners”.

For more information regarding Corporate Travel on Transact, please contact Chartis on 1300 CHARTIS (1300 242 7847), email transact@chartisinsurance.com or visit their website www.chartisinsurance.com.au.
