

Press Release

Monday 23rd August, 2010

Chartis Appoints Noel Condon Chief Executive Officer of Chartis, Australia

Sydney, Australia – Monday 23rd August - Chartis today announced the appointment of Noel Condon to the role of Chief Executive Officer of Chartis, Australia succeeding Chris Townsend.

“Having worked in Australasia a decade ago, I am looking forward to re-connecting with colleagues and working in one of the most competitive insurance markets in the world” Mr. Condon said.

Mr. Condon joins the Australian team after a six year appointment as the Country Manager for Chartis, Belgium/Luxembourg. He has an extensive history with the company, commencing his employment with AIG Ireland as a Marine Underwriter in 1984. Mr. Condon has since served in a variety of executive positions throughout the organisation, including Marketing Director of AIA Shanghai, Country Manager roles in Chartis Hungary, New Zealand and Korea, and Regional Vice President, Accident and Health in both the Chartis UK/Ireland and Far East regions. Mr. Condon has been responsible for significant growth in revenue, enhanced partner and client relationships and the implementation of innovative product development in each of the markets in which he served. Mr. Condon brings to the role a wealth of experience and expertise as well as a great sense of the Chartis core values and strategic vision.

Chartis is a world leading property-casualty and general insurance organisation serving more than 45 million clients in over 160 countries and jurisdictions. With a 90-year history, one of the industry's most extensive ranges of products and services, deep claims expertise and excellent financial strength, Chartis enables its commercial and personal insurance clients alike to manage virtually any risk with confidence. In Australasia Chartis has been meeting the needs of businesses for over 50 years.

© 2010 Chartis. All rights reserved.