

Insurance Day award success

Chartis UK and CEO, Lex Baugh, have won two prestigious awards at the Insurance Day London Market awards dinner held at the Grosvenor House Hotel on Park Lane, on Thursday 3 December.

Chartis UK/AIG UK won Company of the Year and the Industry Achiever of the Year was presented to Lex Baugh.

Presenting the award for Company of the Year to Commercial lines Director Kelly Lyles, Richard Banks, editor of Insurance Day said,

“The award is for the company that has truly made a difference in the last year to eighteen months. Chartis UK has shown admirable transparency and excellent communications with clients in very challenging and unprecedented circumstances.”

The Achiever of the Year Award is presented to the individual who has made an outstanding difference, beyond the call of duty.

Presenting the award to Lex, Nick Bugler, partner at sponsors Dewey Leboeuf said, “One man stood out for his leadership and encouragement in very difficult circumstances.”