

The Healthcare industry is highly specialized and requires an experience carrier with the resources to manage risks. As one of the largest providers of Excess Workers' Compensation and Employers' Liability coverage in the United States, the Excess Workers' Compensation division is prepared to serve the unique needs of healthcare providers. Our comprehensive loss control service program supplements our internal resources with the expertise of a national healthcare consulting group – a strategic relationship that ensures that we can deliver quality loss control services to assist clients in successfully managing workplace hazards, regulatory requirements and related business risks in the healthcare environment.

Healthcare Industry-Specific Resources

Excess Workers' Compensation's Global Loss Prevention team works with more than two dozen different healthcare providers including hospitals, clinics, assisted living and long-term care facilities, visiting nurses and others. Through our partnership with the healthcare industry's leading service providers, we are able to offer our clients the loss control services of highly qualified healthcare professionals including RNs, acute and long-term care nursing professionals, facility administrators, rehabilitation specialists, case managers and more. Services available to our healthcare clients include:

- Best Practices Needs Assessment using healthcare industry-specific performance data.
- Resources for safe patient handling and transfer, blood-borne pathogens, control of sharps, hostile patients and more.
- On-Site Safety Assessments to evaluate healthcare/hospital/nursing operation.
- Site-Specific Training.
- Quarterly Risk Management communiqué.
- Toll-Free Resources Helpline
- On-Line training programs on DVD or VHS
- Web-based Resource Center with Risk and Safety Fact Sheets

Providing Business Solutions

Excess Workers' Compensation's excellence is rooted in the belief that a quality insurance program entails more than just sound underwriting; it requires customer-driven service. The dedicated loss control specialists from Global Loss Prevention will focus on our clients' businesses to understand their needs. By partnering with them to help identify, analyze and control risks, the Excess Workers' Compensation team provides cost-effective business solutions that fit their unique requirements.
