Serving the Power Generation Industry's Needs

In an increasingly competitive market, power generation companies need insurance solutions from an experienced carrier who understands their challenges as well as they do. With over 30 years as one of the largest providers of Excess Workers' Compensation and Employers' Liability, the Excess Workers' Compensation division understands that effective loss control is critical to the success and safety of power generators. Our loss control service approach combines the knowledge and resources of our internal staff with the extensive expertise of national consulting groups specializing in power generation workplace safety and security – a strategic relationship that ensures we can deliver industry-specific loss control services to assist you in successfully managing workplace safety/security, regulatory compliance and related risks.

Power Generation Industry-Specific Resources

The Excess Workers' Compensation Global Loss Prevention staff is experienced in managing the traditional and non-traditional risks for power generation companies. Historically, we have assisted power generators with workplace safety/security training, including physical & chemical hazards, life safety, health issues and more. Events affecting power generators across the nation highlight the need for a progressive, all-encompassing loss control solution for more than traditional risks. Areas that senior management must address in their planning and organization include:

- Company Organization & Structure (Delegation and Accountability)
- Program Documentation & Resources
- Emergency Planning & Preparation
- Communication & Response Systems
- Management and Employee Training/Awareness
- Physical & Technological Infrastructure
- Internal Resources Capabilities
- External Resources & Response

We work with recognized power generation industry specialists experienced in utility, nuclear, above ground and underground mining power generator preparedness and emergency planning. This strategic partnership allows us to introduce our clients to the services of a team of professionals that can offer guidance on workplace and emergency preparedness/planning programs. We offer risk assessment options that provide an excellent opportunity to initiate or benchmark your organization's emergency and crisis planning.

Providing Business Solutions

Excess Workers' Compensation's excellence is rooted in the belief that a quality insurance program entails more than just sound underwriting; it requires customer-driven service. The dedicated loss control specialists from Global Loss Prevention will focus on our clients' businesses to understand their needs. By partnering with them to help identify, analyze and control risks, the Excess Workers' Compensation team provides cost-effective business solutions that fit our clients' specific needs. We will also supplement our loss control program with materials and resources that can assist you in identifying and controlling risks, as well as the resultant losses.
